EXECUTIVE DIRECTORY.

The Executive Directory decrees, that the reſignation of citizen Merlin, miniſter of general police of the Republic is accepted —it names the ſaid Merlin miniſter of juſtice.

ADDRESS.

The Executive Directory, citizen miniſter, take too much intereſt in the preſervation of a man, who has demonſtrated his zeal and devotion in the painful labours of miniſter of police, to decline accepting your reſignation, notwithſtanding a ſtrong deſire that you ſhould remain at the difficult poſt you have quitted.

But they think it a duty to appoint you again to be Miniſter of Juſtice. Your experience in that office renders the duty eaſy, and the directory ſeize, with pleaſure, this occaſion to conciliate the care of your health, with the uſefulneſs which the republic expects from your employment and patriotiſm.

Arret of April 3.—The Executive Directory nominates as Miniſter of General Police, Cochon, repreſentative of the people and member of the council of elders. This arret ſhall be printed.

Same day.—The Executive Directory decrees, that the reſignation of citizen Genniſſieu, Miniſter of Juſtice, is accepted.—The ſaid citizen Genniſſieu is named conſul of the French Republic at Barcelona. Ordered to be printed.

LONDON, April 5.

We this morning received the Paris Journal to the 7th inſt. incluſive.

Pichegru is appointed ambaſſador to Sweden, this is conſidered as honorable exile, and is highly offence to the people in general, if we may judge from the tone the journals take upon the occaſion.

April 11. A meſſage from the houſe of peers to the commons ſtated, that their lordſhips had agreed to the bill for making the port of Scarborough, in the Iſland of Tobago a free port; the American intercourſe bill—the rock ſalt indemnity bill, and ſeveral private bills.

Late laſt night we received the following very important papers, which were yeſterday communicated by lord Grenville to all the foreign miniſters reſident at this court. They are the contents of the diſpatch received on Friday laſt, from Mr. Wickham, his majeſty's envoy to the Swiſs Cantons, and appear to be the reſult of the meaſures Mr. Pitt ſome weeks ſince announced to be in train for aſcertaining the real diſpoſition of the French directory, on the queſtion of peace or war.

It will alſo be recollected, that we mentioned about three weeks ſince, that we had reaſon to believe, that Mr. Wickham was the gentleman whom Mr. Pitt alluded to, as being charged with this enquiry. We are ſorry the reſult is of that gloomy nature, as to leave no other alternative with his majeſty and his miniſters, than of continuing the war with unabated vigor; in which determination they muſt and no doubt will be ſupported by every good ſubject in the kingdom.

We ſhould have been happy to have given both the original French, as well as the tranſlation, but as the tranſlation is an official one, it will be almoſt equally ſatisfactory to the public.

In conſequence of Mr. Wickham's diſpatch, a meſſage from his majeſty is expected to be delivered this day by Mr. Pitt to the houſe of commons.

NOTE

Tranſmitted to M Barthelemi, by Mr. Wickham, March 8.

The underſigned, his Britannic majeſty's miniſter plenipotentiary to the Swiſs Cantons, is authoriſed to convey to M. Barthelemi, the deſire of his court to be made acquainted, through him, with the diſpoſitions of France in regard to the ſubject of a general pacification. He therefore requeſts M. Barthelemi to tranſmit to him in writing (and after having made the neceſſary enquiries) his anſwer to the following queſtions:

1. Is there the diſpoſition in France to open a negociation with his majeſty and his allies for the re-eſtabliſhment of a general peace, upon juſt and ſuitable terms, by ſending, for that purpoſe, miniſters to a Congreſs, at ſuch place as may hereafter be agreed upon?

2. Would there be a diſpoſition to communicate to the underſigned the general grounds of a pacification, ſuch as France would be willing to propoſe, in order that his majeſty and his allies might thereupon examine in concert, whether they are ſuch as might ſerve as the foundation of a negociation for peace?

3. Or would there be a deſire to propoſe any other way whatever, for arriving at the ſame end, than that of a general pacification?

The underſigned is authoriſed to receive from M. Barthelemi the anſwer to theſe queſtions, and to tranſmit it to his court: but he is not in any manner authoriſed to enter with him into negociation or diſcuſſion upon theſe ſubjects.

(Signed) W. WICKHAM.
Berne, March 8.

NOTE

Tranſmitted to Mr. Wickham, by M. Barthelemi, March 26, 1796.

The underſigned ambaſſador of the French Republic, to the Helvetic body, has tranſmitted to the executive directory the note which Mr. Wickham, his Britannic majeſty's miniſter plenipotentiary to the Swiſs Cantons, was pleaſed to convey to him dated the 8th of March. He has it in command to anſwer it by an expoſition of the ſentiments and diſpoſitions of the executive directory.

The directory ardently deſires to procure for the French republic, a juſt, honorable, and ſolid peace. The ſteps taken by Mr. Wickham would have afforded to the directory a real ſatisfaction, if the declaration itſelf, which that miniſter makes, of his not having any order, any power to negociate did not give room to doubt of the ſincerity of the pacific intentions of his court. In fact, if it was true that England began to know her real intereſts, that ſhe wiſhed to open again for herſelf the ſources of abundance and proſperity; if ſhe ſought for peace with good faith; would ſhe propoſe a Congreſs, of which the neceſſary reſult muſt be to render all negociation endleſs? Or would ſhe confine herſelf to the aſking in a vague manner that the French government would point out any other way, whatever, for attaining the ſame object, that of a general pacification?

It is that his ſteps has had no other object than to obtain for the Britiſh government the favorable impreſſion which always accompanies the firſt overtures for peace?—May it not have been accompanied with the hope that they would produce no effect?

However that may be, the executive directory, whoſe policy has no other guides, than openneſs and good faith, will follow in its explanations, a conduct which ſhall be wholly conformable to them. Yielding to the ardent deſire by which it is animated, to procure peace for the French republic and for all other nations, it will not fear to declare itſelf openly. Charged by the conſtitution with the execution of the laws, it cannot make or liſten to any propoſal that would be contrary to them. The conſtitutional act does not permit it to conſent to any alienation of that which, according to the exiſting laws, conſtitutes the territory of the republic.

With reſpect to the countries occupied by the French armies, and which have not been united to France, they, as well as other intereſts, political and commercial, may become the ſubject of a negociation, which will preſent to the directory the means of proving how much it deſires to attain ſpeedily a happy pacification.

The directory is ready to receive in this reſpect, any overtures that ſhall be juſt, reaſonable, and compatible with the dignity of the republic.

(Signed) BARTHELEMI.

year of the French Republic,

NOTE.

The court of London has received from its miniſter in Switzerland, the anſwer made to the queſtions which he had been charged to addreſs to Monſieur Barthelemi, in reſpect to the opening of a negociation for the re-eſtabliſhment of general tranquility.

This court has ſeen, with regret, how far the tone and ſpirit of that anſwer, the nature and extent of the demands which it contains, and the manner of announcing them are remote from any diſpoſition for peace.

The inadmiſſible pretenſion is there avowed, of appropriating to France all that the laws actually exiſting there may have comprized under the pretence of an internal regulation, the proviſions of which are wholly foreign to all other nations.

While theſe diſpoſitions ſhall be perſiſted in, nothing is left for the king but to proſecute a war equally juſt and neceſſary.

WAR BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE PORTE.

PEST, March 26.

The march of the Ruſſian troops to the Ottoman frontiers has long announced an approaching rupture betwen Ruſſia and the Porte. It is expected that hoſtilities will ſoon break out. It is pretended that what which has determined the Empreſs to haſten the opening of the campaign, is her uneaſineſs at the preparations of the Turks both by ſea and land, and information of France having ſent officers and arms of all ſorts to the Porte; in conſequence, ſhe has cauſed to be followed by three armies of [illegible] each, a manifeſto that ſhe has publiſhed againſt the Divan, and ſhe has determined to attack ſome parts of the Turkiſh empire, before the French can have time to combine their plan of operations in the enſuing campaign with that of the Muſſelmen. [illegible] the motives that the Vienna Gazette aſſigns for the recent hoſtilities of which we are informed. We are aſſured the Ruſſians have already taken the fortreſs of Chocim and that an army, under the command of General Romanzow has already reached the borders of the Dnieſter.

It is thought that this ſudden invaſion is an event concerted in execution of the triple alliance, and that its object is to oblige the Grand Seignor to break all connexion with the French.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, to a Merchant of this City, dated April 22.

"The ſituation of Europe is at this moment exceedingly critical. A war is at this moment on the eve of breaking out between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and Swedes; and vaſt preparations are making by both powers. 40,000 Ruſſians are on the borders of Sweden, and all the troops of the latter power are in motion. The king of Pruſſia is ſaid to have an army of 40,000 men ready to join the petty principalities, then march into Holland, and once more reſtore the Stadtholder, in conſequence as he alledges of the French having violated their treaty.

"On the other hand, in conſequence of this republic having refuſed to acknowledge the French miniſter, they have laid an embargo on all [illegible] of this flag in their ports; in conſequence of this, numbers of ſhips that were ready to proceed to the different ſouthern ports are detained. England and France ſeem to maintain the war with unabated activity; ſo that, in ſhort, from preſent appearances it is reaſonable to conjecture the ſummer will find all Europe in a blaze."

Extract of a letter from Martinico.

"Since M. DE FOULOGIER has been Intendant in this Iſland, two veſſels of the king have been ſent to Otaheite, to ſearch for plants, and other curious productions of that country, and among other things, they have brought ſugar canes, which produce double of our ordinary canes, ſo that the Colony, after all the injuries it has ſuſtained yields the ſame quantity of ſugar as in the time of its greateſt cultivation. The ſight of the canes will plead more ſtrongly, than any words I can uſe. You will receive of both kinds to judge how much the Colony has gained in three years. In two more, if we are not interrupted the Iſland muſt be in a moſt flouriſhing ſituation."

A Portugueze Indiamen, having on board a very valuable cargo bound from Brazil to Goa, and mounting 32 guns in the Indian Ocean fell in with the French frigate Cybele, mounting 44 guns, and carrying 470 men, when a moſt deſperate and bloody action commenced, which laſted three hours and a half. The Portugueſe ſhip was obliged to ſtrike her colours, after having a vaſt number of men killed on board. The Frenchman took poſſeſſion, and after plundering the ſhip of every thing valuable on board diſmiſſed her; exacting however, from the captain, an oath not to take arms againſt the French Republic again during the continuation of the preſent war.

June 11. Wedneſday arrived ſchr. AIY, Capt. WOODMAN, 16 days from St. Bartholomews who informs, that he lay at St. Lucia when the Britiſh invaded that Iſland, but ſhortly made the beſt of his way, leaving behind the chief part of the net proceeds of his cargo to a conſiderable amount.

On the 26th of April, about 80 ſail of Britiſh tranſports and ſome men of war, having on board from 7 to 10,000 troops, arrived at Shock Bay, (St. Lucia) and in different engagements with the Republicans they loſt in killed and wounded about 1000 men. It was ſuppoſed they would be obliged to evacuate the Iſland, as diſeaſe was making conſiderable ravages among them.

Capt. Stutſon, of the ſchooner Diſpatch, informs that a ſloop from Surinam brought certain accounts of the arrival there of a Dutch fleet of ſix men of war; and that upon the arrival of two more; which had been ſeparated from the reſt, an attack was to be made on the Engliſh at Demarara, who had there a ſixty four and two frigates, and were repairing the works when Capt. Stutſon ſailed, in conſequence of the above mentioned intelligence.

Pittsburgh, June 25.

Thurſday laſt arrived in town his Excellency ANTHONY WAYNE Commander in Chief of the Army of the United States. His arrival was announced by a diſcharge of artillery from Fort Fayette.

From Preſque'iſle we hear, that information had been received there, that the Britiſh have removed all their ſtores, &c. from Detroit, Niagara, &c. to garriſons which they have erected in their own territory, and that they have only left a few men at each of the garriſons, to prevent damage being done by evil diſpoſed perſons, until they are demanded by the proper authority.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT is duty a man owes to the public and world in general to point out a knave or a fellow, who by his craft and cunning, may attempt injury to character and property. A copy of an agreement between John Lanthois and the ſubſcriber was publiſhed in the Pittſburgh Gazette of the 28th of May, ult. by ſaid Lanthois, charging the ſubſcriber with a non performance of his part—The public can judge whether the charge is juſt or unjuſt by reading ſaid agreement (which was written by Lanthois) the agreement mentions no particular time when the ſum of one hundred dollars is to be ordered, but very particularly mentions that the horſe be delivered in like good order. Now, Mr. Lanthois does not ſay that he delivered the horſe in like good order, and a refuſal on my part of the hundred dollars; had he done this, it might have carried with it ſome face. The worthy men of the United States who may know or ſee ſaid John Lanthois, I think would not deliver him one horſe of five years old or upwards, without the money or value once paid down here or elſewhere. In a poſtſcript he declares himſelf a ſtranger, it therefore may be neceſſary for people to be aware not to be taken in by this ſtranger. For my part I muſt declare that ſaid Lanthois has acted a very diſhonorable part with me, not only in the horſe, but by taking off a new double reined plated curb bridle, value ſeven dollars, and as I can have no doubt ſaid Lanthois may attempt to diſpoſe of it, I will give three dollars to any perſon who will return ſaid bridle to me.

It may not be amiſs to obſerve, that the horſe Lanthois purchaſed was worth one hundred and twenty dollars, and I would have ordered one hundred for him had Lanthois not been ſo impudent to one of my riders, although the horſe was conſiderably worſe than when he received him at Carliſle.
